Mary Baker Glover, daughter of George W. Glover, only son of Mrs. Eddy, photographed by a BOSTON AMERICAN photographer.

Special to the Boston American.

CONCORD, N. H., August 6.—Former United States Senator Chandler and George W. Glover, Mrs. Eddy's only child, arrived in Concord today to file her deposition which has already been taken at the famous Eddy case.

Senator Chandler and Glover came here from the Senator's summer place at Waterville, where they spent the night.

The Senator was accompanied by his clerk, who carried a copy of each of the depositions, and these are to be filed with Magistrate Cook.

Mr. Glover, upon his arrival here, said that he would not make any attempt to call upon his mother while he is in the city unless a special invitation were sent to him. He said that he regarded his contempt as unjust.

Armstrong Reported Ill.

Much interest is taken here in the news which has been received from Boston to the effect that Joseph Armstrong, of No. 287 Commonwealth avenue, who has charge of the publication of Mrs. Eddy's writings and who was wanted as a witness in the proceedings in Concord, is now in a critical condition in Boston, it is alleged.

At that time Senator Chandler will make an effort to see him, and will, it is expected, be able to see him in making his statements made by the business friends of Mrs. Eddy, who say that her mental and physical condition is excellent.

It is reported that the visit of Miss Eva Thompson to her home in Lead City, N. D., Mr. Glover took occasion to deny that any such visit had taken place, and that he had never seen her since she left her home in Lead City.

Mr. Glover also denied that there was any intention of any intention to compromise in the letter he received from his mother which she brought to him.

In the letter from his mother, Mrs. Eddy called him for being a delinquent, but she said that she was not interested in any such thing.

Glover Thinks He Was Watched.

Mr. Glover believes that his movements before he left his home and during his journey to New Hampshire have been under close surveillance, although for what purpose he does not state.

According to his story, taken from the deposition, he was followed by a man in a dark suit, who was seen to enter his home in Concord last night.

Mr. Glover reported that he was followed by a man in a dark suit, who was seen to enter his home in Concord last night.

Mr. Glover also reported that he was followed by a man in a dark suit, who was seen to enter his home in Concord last night.

Carries Arms.

Referring to the system of espionage to which he claims he has been subjected, Mr. Glover said that several weeks ago he was followed by a man in a dark suit, who was seen to enter his home in Concord last night.

Mr. Glover also reported that he was followed by a man in a dark suit, who was seen to enter his home in Concord last night.

WITNESS TOO ILL TO MAKE DEPOSITION.

DECLARES COUNSEL

At the hearing in Boston before Commissioner of the Superior Court, Judge James A. Munroe, today, the deposition of Mrs. Eddy's only child, George W. Glover, was taken. Mr. Glover, who is now in a critical condition in Boston, is too ill to make a deposition.

Mr. Glover's counsel, Mr. J. A. Munroe, declared that his client was too ill to make a deposition, and that he was unable to attend to his own affairs.

Boston's Millionaire—Author Announces Arrival of Granddaughter.

Thomas W. Lawson, Boston's famous copper millionaire and author, is a grandfather.

Mrs. Lawson a few years ago was the wife of Herbert Barham de New York, from whom she was divorced after their engagement was announced.

Since their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Lawson have passed their time between their beautiful Whitehouse home and Dream Island, the beautiful country estate of the older Mr. Lawson.

THROUGHOUT GREAT RELIGIOUS LINES FORGOTTEN BY MOURNERS AT FUNERAL SERVICE.

Among many sorrowing parishioners and friends, ministers of all denominations, business men and others who had valued his life, the funeral service was held today for the Rev. Charles H. Crane, D. D., late pastor of the People's Temple of this city. Long before the hour of the service, little groups of people assembled in the church and took a parking lot in front of the church.

STRANGLER ATTACKED PRETTY NURSE, CAUGHT AFTER A WILD CHASE

Policemen Fire on Fugitive Who Flew After Attempting to Drag Young Woman into Hallway—Captured and Thoroughly Beaten—Mobs Pursue Alleged Assaulters of Girls.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Policemen fired many shots in a wild chase through the upper West Side and Central Park to-day for the man who had dragged Miss Adelaide Wilbert, a pretty health department nurse, into the basement of a One Hundred and Sixth street building and there attempted to attack her.

It was the seventh villainous attack to be added in a few short hours to the already long list of atrocities against women and children in New York's great crime wave.

Miss Wilbert routed her assailant with a hat pin and attracted by her screams the attention of Policemen Vahrenkamp and Kearns. They chased the man through the streets into Central Park, and after firing many shots captured the fellow, who was later identified by Miss Wilbert. He was severely beaten when he resisted the officers.

TO SUE STATE FOR BOY'S DEATH, FATHER'S THREAT

DECLARES REFORMATORY OFFICIALS BATHED SON IN SCALDING WATER.

Because he believes that the death of his seventeen-year-old son Frank at the Concord reformatory, where he was serving a sentence, was not due to natural causes, but resulted from the boys being bathed in scalding water and beaten when he resisted, Vinal H. Brown of No. 35 Pine street announced today his intention to sue the State for $100,000.

Young Brown, who is the son of a prominent family, was taken to the reformatory on July 25. The father claims that he had been told by the reformatory officials that his son was being bathed in scalding water and beaten when he resisted the officers.

NOT TO OBEY RESOLUTION

Gale Ground Physically.

Mr. Foster declared that he was gaining ground physically. He seemed to take a keen interest in affairs of the day, and attended the meetings of the Board of the United Church at its last Sunday meeting. When he spoke his mind on the subject of the day's work, he did so in a calm and dignified manner, although his great weakness made him dependent on every one for support and gesture.

Mr. Foster, in fact, is not seriously ill, and will probably leave his room by the Central Labor Union on Sunday.

Dr. J. W. H. Smith, a prominent Boston physician, said to a BOSTON POST-TRADER reporter:

"Mr. Foster's recovery may be delayed; if he may not recover fully for a long time, he will have to live on crutches, and be compelled to lie down."

"He is simply convalescing from a long illness. He did not, however, do as much as he had hoped, in recovering himself from his breakdown in life size."

FRANK K. FOSTER.

After our officers learned that the customary scale paid by builders to excavators was $100 a day, they were told to contact Mr. Sturgis, the architect, who had been retained by the city to contract, despite the fact that the grand jury had indicted him, the man whom the contract was awarded.

"Therefore it seems evident to us that the city of New York Temporarily employed those who work long hours for less pay than they are entitled to," said the shoulders of Messrs. Pritchett, Sturgis and Sturgis."

'MAY USE PAPER
BATS,' SAYS
BRESNAHAN

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 6.—According to the dope handed out by Roger Bresnahan, the Giants' catcher, who was in St. Louis last week, the home runs of future baseball games will be knocked out with paper bats.

"White bickory and ash, from which bats are now manufactured, are getting scarce," says Roger, "and the process of seasoning the wood is long and tedious.

"It requires three years to season the white hickory and ash. The wood cannot be kiln-dried, so that with the long process and the scarcity of timbers, bats are getting higher in price every year. But the cornet is slimmer must have a chestnut, and that is what the manufacturer are trying to make of paper."
